BADEN-POWELL'S SWORD.

One of the Finest Ever Made Nove Belongs to the Hero of Mafeking.

One of the finest swords ever made has recently been presented to Gen.

Baden-Powell, the hero of Mafeking, by the citizens of Port Elizabeth, in South Africa. The hilt of the sword is of fine gold, and is surmounted by the head of a lion. The guard, also of fine gold, is richly decorated, and has the monogram, "B. P." on one side and the arms of Port Elizabeth on the reverse. The scabbard is of scarlet velvet, richly adorned on the upper portion with the arms of Cape Colony, enameled in proper colors, and an African lion in fine gold. The cenwords, "Mafeking, 1899-1900," closed in victors' wreaths. The "shoe" is also composed of fine gold, and has a medallion on one side with the representation in the upper part of the colonel's well-known campaigning hat, rifle, and emblems of literature, art and science. Below these are groups of cannon and palms, with the motto: "Palmam qui meruit ferat." blade is of fine steel, richly etched in elaborate style with a number of symbols illustrative of the life of the Gas and Steam Fitters. gallant general, and bears the following inscription: "Presented by the citizens of Port Elizabeth to Maj. Gen. Baden-Powell in con memoration of the gallant defense of Mafeking, 1900. M. Gumpert (mayor), W. P. Pinn (town clerk)." The whole work is executed in the best possible taste and is a fine specimen of the goldsmith's

ECONOMY IN GUN TESTING.

Henry Artillery Practice Would Be Too Costly If Full Charges Were Used.

The method used in the United firing one of the large guns used in Each can contains small packages the navy is very great, amounting this expense a very simple method is employed. In the case of the large guns an ordinary Remington rifle is secured in the breech of the gun and directly in the center of the bore, so that when it is fired its bullet takes the same direction as that of the regular projectile. The large gun is sighted in the usual manner. On account of the lesser velocity of the small bullet the target is placed close to the ship and is made correspondingly small.

The method used for the six-pounder or other small guns is slightly different, as instead of the small rifle a wooden or dummy cartridge, the same size as the regular cartridge, is employed. Through the center of this wooden cartridge runs a rifle barrel which is loaded with a 44-caliber car-

This Beautiful Gem Is Highly Prized by Fashionables at Present.

"Not the least beautiful of the many semi-precious stones for which there is always a large demand is the topaz,' said a wholesale dealer in gems to a Washington Star writer. "The name topaz suggests only a yellow stone, yet there are light blue, brown and green varieties which are frequently sold as aquamarines. The genuine aquamarine may, however, be easily distinguished from a topaz, as the former stone more closely resembles the color of green sea salt. Besides, the topaz admits of a higher polish, and is ex-tremely slippery to the touch. Strange to say, the yellow topaz when slightly heated, becomes pink; heated further, the pink grows paler, and by long heating it is entirely expelled, leaving the green colorless. The sherry colored or brown topaz is blenched in a very short time by the rays of the sun or strong daylight, and all the white topazes found in nature have been colorized and lon, Brazil and Maine and in volcanic for and delivered, rocks in Colorado, Utah and New Mex-
